FINAL ORDER NO. 60138/2022

Date of Hearing: 20.04.2022

Date of Decision: 12.10.2022

AJAY SHARMA:

This appeal has been filed by the Revenue assailing the order dated 13/12/2018 passed by the Commissioner, CGST (Appeals) Gurugram by which the learned Commissioner allowed the appeal filed by the appellant and set aside the Order-in-

Original No. 50/Refund/CGST/Div-East-1/2017-18 passed by the Adjudicating Authority.

2. The issue to be decided is whether the services provided by the respondent-assessee falls within the category of "Intermediary Services". The facts related to filing of the appeal are that the respondent is registered under the category of "Business Auxillary Service". They had filed three refund claims the details are as under:

Period Amount

- (I) October 2016 December 2016 2,47,90,605/-
- (II) January 2017 March 2017 2,99,13,277/-
- (III) April 2017 June 2017 3,75,64,681/-

Total refund claim amounting to Rs 9,22,68,563/- for the period October, 2016 to June, 2017 was sought by the respondent of un-utilisedCenvat Credit on input service used in providing taxable service of the nature of "Business Auxillary Service" exported to respondent's clients located outside India. A Show Cause Notice dated 24/07/2018 was issued to the appellant as towhy the refund claim be not rejected and the Adjudicating Authority vide Order-in-Original dated 29/08/2018 rejected the entire refund claim on the ground that the respondent has not fulfilled the condition for export. On appeal filed by the respondent – assessee, the learned Commissioner following his decision in respondent's own case for the period July, 2012 to September, 2016 allowed the appeal filed by the appellant.

3. We have heard learned Authorised Representative for the Revenue and learned Counsel for the respondent-assessee and records including peruse the case the written submissions/synopsis. The order of learned Commissioner granting refund for the earlier period was also challenged by Revenue before this Tribunal and the Tribunal vide Final Order No. A/60543/2019-CU(DB) dated 05/04/2019 in the matter of "Commissioner of GST, Gurugaon- II v/s Orange Business Solution Private Limited"; 2019 (27) GSTL 523 (Tri-Chan.) dismissed the same after going into detailed facts of the matter including the agreement between the Orange Business Services and its customer and also taking into consideration the Guidance Notes of CBE&C dated 20/06/2012 clarifying the meaning of 'Intermediary'. The relevant portion of the said decision is extracted as under:-

The sole allegation of the Revenue is that the respondent provided intermediary service, therefore the benefit of export services is not available to them.

9. We find that C.B.E. &C. by Guidance Note on 20.6.2012 has clarified the meaning of intermediary as under:-

"Para 5.9.6 what are intermediary services?

Generally, an "intermediary" is a person who arranges or facilitates a supply of goods, or a provision of service, or both, between persons, without material alteration or further processing. Thus, an intermediary is involved with two supplies at any one time:

The supply between the principal and the third party; and

The supply of his own service (agency service) to his principal, for which a fee or commission is usually charged."

For the purpose of this Rule, an intermediary in respect of goods (such as commission agent i.e. buying or selling agent or a stock holder) is excluded by definition. Also excluded from this sub-rule is a person who arranges or facilitates a provision of a service (referred to in the Rule as "the main service"), but provides the main service on his own account. In order to determine whether a person is acting as an intermediary or not, the following factors need to be considered:-

Nature and value: An intermediary cannot alter the nature or value of the service, the supply of which he facilitates on behalf of his principal, although the principal may authorize the intermediary to negotiate a different price. Also the principal must know the exact value at which the service is supplied (or obtained) on his behalf, and any discounts that the intermediary obtains must be passed back to the principal.

Separation of value: The value of an intermediary's service is invariably identifiable from the main supply of service that he is arranging. It can be based on an agreed percentage of the sale or purchase price. Generally, the amount charged by an agent from his principal is referred to as "commission".

Identity and title: The service provided by the intermediary on behalf of the principal is clearly identifiable."

- 10. FromtheaboveGuidanceNoteofC.B.E.&C. dated 20.6.2012anddefinitionof intermediary, thefollowing conclusion hasdrawn:-
 - (a) Anintermediaryarrangesorfacilities aprovisionofa 'mainservice' betweentwomore persons;
 - (b) An intermediary is involved with two supplies at any one time (i)the supply between the principal and the third party; and (ii)thesupply of his own service (agency service) to his principal, for which afee or commission isusuallycharged;
 - (c) An intermediary cannot influence the nature or value of service, the supply of which he facilitates on behalf of his principal, although the principal may authorize to negotiate adifferent price;
 - (d) Theconsideration for an intermediary is separately identifiable from the main supply of service that he is arranging and is in thenature of feeor commissioncharged by him;
 - (e) The test of agency must be satisfied between the principal and theagenti.e.theintermediary.TheGuidanceNotesta testhattheintermediaryortheagentmusthavedocu mentaryevidenceauthorizing

Wefurthertakenoteofthefactthattheactivityoftheappell ant is routine back office process outsourcings activities and arecompletely based on instructions/guidelines provided by ENSIL/AEs inthis regard. The Revenue has not produced any evidence as to whyproviding of back office process outsourcing should be treated asintermediary.

- 15. In view of above discussion, we hold that the responder is notproviding any intermediary service, therefore, no service taxi spayable by the respondent. The Commissioner (Appeals) has examined the issue and sanctioned the refund claim.
- 16. We have gonethrough theimpugned order and do not findany infirmity in the impugned and the same is upheld and the appealfiled bythe Revenue is dismissed. Therefore, the respondent is entitled to consequential relief as perimpugned order.

Intheresult, the appeal filed by the Revenue is dismissed and the crossobjections are disposed of in the above terms."

4. We have gone through aforesaid decision of the Tribunal in respondent's own case for the earlier period and concur with the same. As the same has not been stayed or set aside in any appeal, as we can gather from the case records, therefore there is no reason for us to take a contrary view. Since the issue involved herein is no more res integra in view of the decision (supra), therefore following the same we do not find any merit in the appeal filed by the Revenue and the same is accordingly dismissed.
